

TEA Day Programme - Wednesday 27th June, 2018, 10am – 4pm

University of Exeter, Streatham Campus, Mood Disorders Centre – G17

		Speaker ; Chair
10:00am	Arrival: tea and coffee.
Session 1 – Introduction and short talks.
10:30am	Welcome Introduction to TEA and the TIME project since 2003.	Dr Sharon Savage Research Fellow Prof Adam Zeman Principal Investigator
10:50am	Sharing experiences of TEA.	Mr Jon Curson TEA participant
11:00am	Research talk: TIME2 – what our second group of 65 participants teaches us about TEA. (10 min presentation + 10 mins questions)	Dr John Baker PhD/Clinical Fellow
11:20am	Research talk: Long-term outcomes of TEA. (10 min presentation + 10 mins questions)	Dr Sharon Savage
11:40am	Sharing experiences of TEA – effects on memory.	Mr John Francis TEA participant
11:50am	Research talk: Effects of treatment. (10 min presentation + 10 mins questions)	Mr Matthew Lomas, Research Assistant
12:10pm	Current research: Oxford Brain Bank (OBB). (10 min presentation + 10 mins questions)	Mr Vinod Motiani OBB Co-ordinator
12.30-1.15pm Lunch break (and opportunities to chat).
Session 2 – Living with TEA and potential supports.
1:15pm	Coping methods and support – Clinical, lived experience, and family perspectives. (30 mins presentation + 15 mins questions)	Prof Narinder Kapur Clinical Neuropsychologist; Dr Serge Jezquel TEA participant; Mr Paul Lomas Family member
Session 3 – Looking ahead to the future.
2:00pm	Using Social Media & Apps: TEA Facebook Page.	Mrs Anne Parish TEA participant
2:20pm	Small group session 1: what should research focus on next?	TIME research team + TEA small groups
2:40-2:50pm Tea &amp; coffee break.
2:50pm	Short summary of research questions generated.	Dr Sharon Savage
3:00pm	Small group session 2: prioritising future research.	TIME research team + TEA small groups
3:20pm	Discussion of priorities and next steps. Closing remarks & feedback.	Dr Sharon Savage All